BOOKS WALK AND TALK AT SWEET CHALYBEATE

Library Party Varies the Round of Cards and Customary Social Functions—September a Favorite.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] SWEET CHALYBEATE SPRINGS, VA., September 4.—July and August have distinctive charms of their own, but, some now say, cannot rival September in the joys it affords the sojourners here. Many will remain until the frosty days of October call them home. Some faces are missing, it is true, but the 250 guests remaining are enjoying life to the utmost.

The usual round of card parties are unending, the attention of many. Among them was one of which Miss Alice Old, of Norfolk, was hostess.

Miss Zimmer, of Petersburg, entertained for two successive evenings at games of bridge.

A farewell party was tendered Mrs. A. E. Grant, of Cleveland, Ohio, and a moonlight picnic given in honor of Misses Alvira and Leona Dickson previous to their departure for their homes in New Orleans.

The little daughter of Judge McLe-more, of Suffolk, Va., invited many of the children to enjoy with her a hay ride by moonlight.

The Misses Rutherford, of Baltimore, entertained about ninety guests at an afternoon lawn party. A dress-suit case run, and a game of baseball between the girls and the boys, the latter handicapped by girls' attire, were among the features of the affair.

On Friday evening a library party made the ballroom an attractive place. Books walked and talked together. "Mrs. Wiggs" was a conspicuous figure. "Alice in Wonderland" and "The Daisy Chain" danced with "The Age of Elizabeth." "The Virginian" and "Some Ladies in Haste" interrupted "The Reveries of a Bachelor." "Madame Butterfly" studied "An Essay on Men." "The Kentucky Cardinal" flirted with "A Pair of Blue Eyes." "Looking Backward" marched with "The Past and Present." "The Light That Failed" hobnobbed with "The Inner Shrine." "The Black Bag" went with "The White Sister." And all were courteous to "Soldiers Three" and "White Aprons." Mrs. Evelyn Denning was honored with a prize because she was acquainted with the greatest number of the distinguished visitors.

Sometimes the social functions accomplish a noble purpose, and add to the pleasure derived from them by aiding some worthy charity. Such was the case when a bridge and five hundred party were given for the benefit of the Children's Country Home for Convalescents, situated at Orange Grove, Md. Among those playing were: Mrs. Philip Power, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoofnagle, Dr. Gildersleeve, Miss Catherine Yonge, Mrs. Preston Cooke, and Mrs. E. C. Willis, of Richmond; Mrs. W. E. Old, Misses Alice and Margaret Old, Miss Rose Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kennett, Mrs. Frank Cooke, and Mrs. J. W. Montague, Norfolk.

Among the late arrivals are: Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bowen and two children, Newport News; Mrs. J. T. Armstrong, Arthur Maceh, Baltimore, Md.; the Misses Lewis, Lynchburg; Rev. Robert B. Nelson, wife and son, Blacksburg; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Randolph, and J. A. Mordough, Portsmouth; John Moyer and Miss Agnes Moyer, Petersburg; J. H. Winston, Rev. T. C. Johnson, wife and child, Richmond; Philip Coxton, Mrs. Robert Stone, Miss Stone, G. H. Hardie, Charles Mackubin, New York City; W. E. Hamilton, P. H. Fry, Churchville; Misses Mary and Julia Carrell, Miss Harriet Means and Mrs. E. C. Means, Low Moor; Rev. P. B. Tunslee, Tokio, Japan; E. D. Hall, Toledo, Ohio; W. Gregg Kollock, Charleston, S. C.; W. M. Williamson, Virginia.

GREAT CROWDS DRAWN TO NATURAL BRIDGE

Richmond Contingent Enjoys Some Charming Acquisitions and Petersburg Has Its Large Representation.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NATURAL BRIDGE, VA., September 4.—The last week recorded what the English would call the "high season" and at Natural Bridge Hotel it was surely at its height. Every available space was called into requisition. There are good times for all.

The Richmond contingent has had the charming addition this week of Mrs. George Harwood and Miss Lucy Braxton Harwood.

Mrs. William H. Adams and her son, F. De Witt Adams, of Richmond, have arrived this week after having spent some time at Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Blenner and Spruill Blenner, of Richmond, in their White Steamer, spent the day and night at Natural Bridge Hotel, en route to the resorts through the Valley.

This week of glorious moonlight has induced several spirited fox hunts, each proving just a little more interesting than the last.

When this harvest moon was at its roundest and brightest, a straw ride to Sulphur Spring was one of the jolliest of the moonlight frolics. The guests, after a supper on the moon-ill award, returned weary but happy at 3 o'clock in the morning.

There have been many small entertainments this week, but one of the pleasantest was a watermelon feast at Jefferson Cottage given by Mrs. T. B. Clarke and Misses Elsie and Anita Clarke, of Clarkston, Va., and Miss Abbie Storde, of Amelia.

The Marshall Cottage, too, has been the scene of many "small and carles," Mrs. Hubbard and Miss Falkner, of England, being most delightful hostesses.

General Wesley Merritt, U. S. A., who has spent the last three months here, includes in his party his sister, Mrs. Chance, and Miss Hall, of Washington. This party will be augmented in a few days by Mrs. Merritt's arrival from Europe. She has been spending the summer at the German spas.

A great many automobile parties come bowling in at all hours of the day and night now, and report a general improvement in the road conditions. Members say they have never known anything like the enthusiasm shown in the good roads movement.

The autumn lookings at Natural Bridge are unusually heavy, with the prospect of a great many notables being entertained.

Recent arrivals include these: From Richmond—W. T. Thompson, Jr., F. H. Kilpatrick, Miss Peck, Mr. and Mrs. M. Peck, Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Kern, Miss Helen Stewart, Miss Mary Moulton, T. W. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Alley, Miss Elsie Bell, W. B. Pollock, H. C. Twilley, William R. Hill, Miss Raze Thompson, W. V. Butler, Charles B. Dille, W. M. Habliston, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Grey, Mrs. J. O. Eastley, Mrs. H. W. Bassett, Miss Annie Pontaine Smith, Miss Alice Monrore, Richard B. Eastley, Miss Cary B. Eastley, Miss Mary Selden, Miss Katherine Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rhodes,

To All of Our Friends, Greetings.

For the past thirty days all of our four big floors have been in the hands of Carpenter and Cabinet Maker, under whose skillful touches our entire store has been transformed into one of the most beautiful, modern, and best appointed dry-goods stores in all the South.

This entire refurnishing was a big undertaking. Naturally, many little inconveniences arose from day to day during the shopping hours, and to each and every one of the thousands of friends who shopped with us daily—who bore with it all so patiently and pleasantly—we extend our sincere thanks. In a very few days every floor will be in perfect order. New goods, of the J. B. Mosby & Co. quality, are arriving by every boat and train. We mention to-day a few choice arrivals, and announce that within a very few days we will have for your inspection the best selected and most complete stock of high-grade merchandise that has ever been shown in the city.

Mrs. Gaines' Department

TO THE LADIES OF RICHMOND.—In order to meet the rapidly increasing demands for artistic tailoring and dressmaking, we have found it necessary to more than double our floor space and operating room. We now occupy the entire third floor annex. We are thoroughly prepared to execute promptly all orders in garment building, from the plain, strictly tailored suit to the most elaborate costume required for any purpose or occasion.

FANCY COSTUMING will be under the direction of MISS MAJOR, who was associated with our business for several years and late of Baltimore, and who will be so well and pleasantly remembered, not only as an artist of the first class in costume building, but for her charming personality as well.

EXPERT DESIGNING will be executed by MR. ERCOLE SUBRIZI, who has held similar positions for many seasons with the late Mrs. Osborn and the famous Redfern. We cordially invite all who desire work that satisfies to visit our parlors, consult with us and get our estimates.

Respectfully,

the usual complement of guests. With the passing of the summer heat comes an increased interest in out-of-door sports.

Moonlight rides to Front Royal and River-ton and neighboring places are of almost nightly occurrence. The con-fidence of the two branches of the Shenandoah River is but a short dis-tance from the Springs, and fishing has been attended by more than the usual run of luck.

A feature of the week was a tourna-ment on Tuesday, in which there were about twenty entries. George Lee, of Clarke county, crowned Miss Bessie Davis, of Washington, D. C. The tour-nament was followed by a dance in the evening. The coronation address was delivered by Hon. H. H. Downing, of Front Royal.

C.

EVENING FOR CHILDREN AT CROCKETT SPRINGS

Card Parties Also Figure in the Recre-ation Scheme.—Note of Arrivals and Departures.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CROCKETT SPRINGS, VA., Septem-ber 4.—Tuesday was children's night. The ballroom was given over to them for the greater part of the evening, when they enjoyed feeding bags of peanuts to the elephant. The first prize was won by little Miss Wilhel-mine Borden, of Vicksburg; second prize by Theodora Bindarvold, of Portsmouth. After the game, the chil-dren indulged in dancing, the even-ing ending with the Virginia reel, in which both young and old partici-pated.

Miss Bertha Leeds, of New Orleans, entertained the guests most delightfully Wednesday evening. She im-per-sonated the character of Mrs. Almira Fance, a New England dame, who, as a favor, allowed her invited guests to behold her treasures, the photo-graphs in her "Family Album." Her impersonation and costume were excel-lent, and her description of the traditions and good qualities of her family, clever and amusing. The following are the names of those who added Miss Leeds in making the series of tableaux a success: Mother, Miss Kathleen Thomas; Father, Mr. Brown; Me, a little girl, Wilhelmina Borden; Eben; Mr. Henderson; the Parson, Mr. Jop-ling; the Parson's Wife, Miss Anna Huntcut; the Parson's Boy, Will Gar-ret; Miss Ruth Leeds was Sister Jane Higgs, the handsome member of the Higgs family, Deacon Higgs, Mr. Bur-rell; Sophia, Miss Reid; Eliza, the in-tellectual member of the family, Miss Staples, of Roanoke; Grandpa Hobbs, B. Thomas.

Friday evening a successful card party was enjoyed by a number of the guests. Among them were: Mrs. Edward Toby, Dr. Shanks, Miss Har-well, Miss Thomas, Mrs. George Toby, Will Garrett, Miss Bertha Leeds, Miss Wing, Mrs. Cowan, Mr. Burrell, Miss Boswell, Mr. and Mrs. Daniels, Miss Sanders, Miss Hunter, Mrs. Baldwin, B. Thomas and Mr. Henderson. The first prize, a handsome enameled pin, was won by Miss Staples; Mr. Burrell was the fortunate winner of the men's prize, a cigar case of Japanese work-manship. The consolation prize, a Chi-nese idol, fell to Mrs. Cowan.

Among the enjoyable private card parties, suppers and watermelon feasts, may be mentioned those given by Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. and Miss Griffin and Miss Boswell.

The children's friend, R. Fishburn, of Roanoke, left on Monday. The water-melon party and rides which he gave will long be remembered.

Among the departures this week none is more regretted than that of Dr. W. C. Campbell, of Roanoke.

Among the recent arrivals are: L. L. Little, Andersonville, N. C.; Mrs. James Langhorne, Louie Alexander Lang-horne, Richmond; Miss Sterling Thomas, Miss Catherine Thomas, Miss Mary Reaney Thomas, Martinsville; Mrs. C. Bryan, Bedford City; Miss Ruth Thomas, Miss Helen Thomas, E. T. Boswell.

Kindred, Roanoke; Mrs. Arthur Nolte, Miss Dorothea Nolte, Miss Alice Ivy, New Orleans; W. F. Brand, S. H. Mc-Vitty, B. T. Tinsley, W. B. Tinsley, A. M. Tinsley, Salem; Robert C. Marks, Norfolk; N. P. Few, South Carolina; Miss C. R. Terry, Miss M. W. Dillard, J. W. Dillard, Lynchburg; Miss N. Francis, White Gate; Miss E. C. Baird, W. F. Pierce, Miss Anna Pierce, Chris-tiansburg.

MERRY ROUND GOES ON AT GREENBRIER WHITE

Pedestrianism Shares Honors With Driving and Riding Card Parties in Favor of September Arrivals.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] GREENBRIER WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, VA., September 4.—The first month of autumn has arrived, and the vast grounds at the White Sulphur Springs look as majestic as a dowager queen in all her robes of state; a poor comparison to any one who has once beheld this royal gem of Mother Na-ture.

The September guests are arriving to lesser numbers than the rush of August, but with just as happy antici-pations of the joys in store for a so-journ here. Card parties are very much in evidence, riding and driving are holding sway, while the keener de-light and exhilaration of walking is indulged in by many.

Mrs. John D. Lewis gave a fare-well dinner in honor of Mrs. John Chisholm, of New York.

Mrs. M. L. Brown, of Nashville, Tenn., was hostess at a delightful birthday celebration, which took the form of a tempting spread in the cafe for forty guests, who, seated at a round table, toasted the hostess at the cutting of the birthday cake, which was the fea-ture of the evening.

A most enjoyable card party was held in the drawing-room of the hotel. Mrs. G. G. Valentine, of Richmond; Mrs. John McGill, of Petersburg; and Mrs. E. C. Dugas, of Augusta, Ga., were among the lucky prize-winners.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis tendered a moonlight tally-ho party to a com-pany of sixteen, finishing with a de-lightful supper at their cottage. Those enjoying the frolic from Richmond in-cluded Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Valentine, Miss Bagby, G. W. Bagby and B. Boll-ing.

The two noted organizations of rail-road men comprising the Kanawha

Dispatch and the Blue Ridge Dispatch convened here Friday with a large at-tendance of delegates. Thornton Lewis is general manager of the Kanawha, and R. H. Vaughan of the Blue Ridge. Some members of the Kanawha present were: C. J. Brister, C. H. Jackson, F. Herman, R. L. Journer, E. B. Webb, Hilliard Russell, M. J. Ormond, W. F. Echolls, W. O. Snyder and W. T. Hun-ter.
